

Dominique Bourdais
Director for Central and Eastern Europe
HVS International, Global Hospitality Consulting

Dominique Bourdais is a Director of the London Office of HVS International.

Dominique has more than 18 years' specialist hotel consultancy experience. Before entering consultancy, he worked for Forte Hotels in the UK and Sheraton in West Africa.

During his years as a management consultant he has gained substantial international experience, having completed a wide range of tourism-related assignments, whilst diversifying into other fields such as extended stay hotels, serviced apartments, other areas of real estate, golf and leisure, and mergers and acquisitions.

His work within HVS International generally focuses on the provision of specialist hotel valuation, property and consultancy services, throughout Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia.
